DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The Samuel J. Brown House c. 1870 is a two and a half story four bay by one room hall/parlor common bond brick house on Little New York Road % mile west of Sylmar Road. The house faces north with a east/west gable axis.

The house has a full fieldstone foundation and is laid in five course common bond. A medium sloped wood shingle roof has extended eaves and sloped soffits. A central cross gable is sheathed with diagonal board siding around a 4 othic Arch 2/2 sash.

The main elevation has four openings on each floor with two central door openings. A four panel door with heavy arched applied molding is framed by a beaded surround. 2/2 sash are found on either side of the central doorways. Four broken out sash light the second floor.

The gable ends have two window openings on each floor and two four pane attic lights that flank the interior end brick chimneys.

A frame T Kitchen wing extends southward with a shed addition on either side. The kitchen wing is a two story three bay by one balloon frame with weatherboard siding. A medium sloped wood whingle roof has extended eaves also.

The interior has been stripped of plaster and lata but a central located stair still remains with a third quarter of the 19th century newel and turned balusters which support a molded handrail. The mantel also remains with molded pilasters under a paneled frieze and shelf. The second floor has also been stripped and the attic framing is a common rafter system.

A delapidated frame barn with earthen ramp stands southeast of the main house.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This brick farmhouse with two front doors is an important example of a hall/parlor house of probable English background. And two front doors. Samuel Brown appears on both fistorical Waps. but is likely that this brick section at least was built after 1958 dues to the interior woodwork that is typical of the 1879's and later. Samuel Brown was owning 72 acres near Rising Sun according to Lake, Griffing, and Stevenson.
